

FQMUN UNHRC 2026

1. Research and Harvard Method

UNHRC: human rights, equality and social justice, with Pakistan-focused preparation.

Use UDHR, ICCPR, ICESCR, UNHRC and UPR material, Pakistan Constitution and relevant legislation.

Harvard method: author-date research notes, verified primary sources and a reference list.

Build an evidence matrix: right, legal duty, evidence, affected group, institution, remedy, gap and solution.

2. Position Paper

Header -> human-rights problem -> country position -> previous action -> legal framework -> recommendations -> monitoring -> references

For Pakistan focus, review Constitution Articles 25, 26, 27 and 37 and relevant laws for your subtopic.

Prepare a 60-90 second GSL linking human impact, legal standards, national context and practical reforms.

3. Speeches, POIs and Drafting

Prepare caucuses on definitions, root causes, accountability, vulnerable groups, access to justice and implementation.

Use operative language such as calls upon, encourages, recommends, requests and urges.

Ask which right is engaged, what evidence supports the claim, who implements it and how progress is measured.

4. Final Checklist

Know UDHR Articles 1, 2 and 7; ICCPR Articles 2 and 26; and Pakistan Constitution Articles 25, 26, 27 and 37.

Prepare five caucus speeches, ten POIs, five rebuttals and eight operative clauses with monitoring and implementation.

Verify every serious allegation and statistic. Protect due process and distinguish findings from claims.
