

FQMUN 2026 — PNA Study Guide

Pakistan National Assembly · Delegate Preparation & Samples

A practical guide for delegates preparing for parliamentary debate in the Pakistan National Assembly. Use this guide to understand the committee, research your assigned political personality, build arguments, raise points, negotiate, and draft practical policy solutions.

3. Encourages stakeholder consultation with civil society, experts and affected communities;
4. Requests an evaluation mechanism to review effectiveness and publish findings.

8. Parliamentary tips

Address the Chair respectfully. Do not interrupt. Keep notes of other delegates' claims. Build alliances around specific clauses instead of vague friendship. During drafting, make every clause answer: who acts, what they do, how it is funded, and how success is measured.

Quick delegate checklist

- Know your assigned position/personality.
- Know the agenda and three strongest facts.
- Prepare a 60–90 second opening speech.
- Prepare at least five POIs and two rebuttals.
- Bring three practical solutions and draft clauses.
- Keep your tone diplomatic and respond to new developments.
